2011 NSU Louisiana High School Essay Contest

Sponsored by the Folklife Society of Louisiana, the Louisiana Folklife Center, the NSU Writing Project, and the College of Arts, Letters, Graduate Studies and Research at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, Louisiana.

The 2011 contest theme is “Creative Visions of Louisiana.” Entrants are invited to submit either a creative non-fiction essay (1,500 words max.), a short story (2,500 words max.), or up to three pages of poetry.

All entries should have titles and should be typed (double spaced, 12 point font, standard margins).

Deadline: June 15, 2011

The essay contest is open to all Louisiana students in grades 9 – 12 regardless of type of school institution, including students in all types of private educational environments, as well as home schooled students.

All entries should be sent as e-mail attachments to Dr. Shane Rasmussen, rasmussens@nsula.edu or by mail to the Louisiana Folklife Center, NSU Box 3663, Natchitoches, LA 71497. Please include a separate cover page with your name, school affiliation, mailing address, phone number and, if applicable, e-mail address, and the title of your entry. “NSU Louisiana High School Essay Contest” should be the subject line of e-mails. Prize winning students will be notified by July 30, 2011.

There will be one $100 prize winner for each of the three entry categories: Essay, Fiction, and Poetry. In addition to the $100 prize, essay contest winners will receive a $200/per semester NSU scholarship with a value up to $1600 for four years. This award is in addition to other scholarship awards that the student may receive from Northwestern State University. To be eligible, essay winners must submit a complete scholarship application packet to the university by December 1 of their Senior Year. Winners must also have at least a 20 ACT composite or 950 on the SAT, as well as at least a 2.0 GPA to be eligible. Essay winners also need to submit proof of the award.

The three prize winning entries will be published in Louisiana Folklife, an academic journal produced by the Louisiana Folklife Center, Northwestern State University, General Editor, Dr. Shane Rasmussen. (Entries may be subject to minor revision before publication.) Submission to the contest entails granting permission to publish the entry in Louisiana Folklife. The three prize winning students will also be invited to present their essay, short story, or poems at the 3rd Annual Conference on Louisiana Studies held at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, Louisiana, on Saturday September 24, 2011.
